

UN

Volunteers

Opportunity for National Volunteers

Volunteering brings benefits to both society at large and the individual volunteer. It makes important contributions, economically as well as socially. It contributes to a more cohesive society by building trust and reciprocity among citizens.

United Nations Volunteers is looking for some committed, dynamic and self motivated Timorese who want to devote a period of their professional life to serve others as National UNV Volunteers without concerns for financial gain. Initially, the National UNV Volunteers assignments will be for six months which could be extended for another 18 months.

Interested candidates should have minimum secondary level education, 2 years of work experience in community development, minimum 21 years old, fluency in Tetun and basic English language skills.

The National UNV Volunteers will not be paid any salary. They will receive a monthly volunteer living allowance of US$ 99.00 to cover accommodation and basic living expenses.

Interested candidate may collect Terms of Reference of the positions and Curriculum Vitae template from the UN Agency Gate in Caicoli Street. Please submit applications together with curriculum vitae and relevant supporting documents to: Human Resources Management Unit, UNDP Dili, UN Agency Premises, Caicoli Street, Dili, Timor-Leste.

The deadline for submitting applications is 25 February 2007.

Only short-listed candidates will be called for interview. Women candidates are encourage to apply.